

I am opposed to loosening rules governing media ownership. I do not want to see further consolidation of media ownership, which I expect will further narrow the range of opinion available to large audiences. I do not want to see the rule against ownership of both television and newspaper in a locale relaxed. Thank you.